

FEMINISM AND THE NEW DEMOCRACY

Re-siting the Political

Edited by Jodi Dean

SAGE Publications
London • Thousand Oaks • New Delhi

Contents

Contributors	vii
Acknowledgments	xi
Introduction: Siting/Citing/Sighting the New Democracy	1
I National Victims	13
1 The Politics of Responsibility and Perspectives on Violence against Women Kathleen B. Jones	13
2 Feminism of the North and West for Export: Transnational Capital and the Racializing of Gender Zillah Eisenstein	29
3 Exilic Affinities: Diasporic Coalitions in an Epidemic Kate Mehuron	50
4 Forgotten History: Myth, Empathy and Assimilated Culture Karen Engle and Ranjana Khanna	67
5 Hate Speech and Human Rights Renata Salecl	81
II Practicing Coalitions	98
6 Equality, Difference and Democracy: Recent Feminist Debates in the United States Nancy Fraser	98
7 Reflections from Contemporary Women's Movements in India Manisha Desai	110
8 (Be)Coming Out: Lesbian Identity and Politics Shane Phelan	124
9 Genealogical Feminism: a Politic Way of Looking Lee Quinby	146

III Bodily Locations	168
10 Spare Parts, Family Values, Old Children, Cheap Patricia J. Williams	168
11 The Regulation of Lesbian Sexuality through Erasure: the Case of Jennifer Saunders Anna Marie Smith	181
12 Performing Theory: Socrates, Sam, Kate and Scarlot Shannon Bell	198
IV Democratic Reflections	210
13 Gender Hierarchy, Equality and the Possibility of Democracy Drucilla Cornell	210
14 Musing as a Feminist in a Postfeminist Era Patricia S. Mann	222
15 The Reflective Solidarity of Democratic Feminism Jodi Dean	244
Index	265