

NORMS AND VALUES

Essays on the Work of Virginia Held

Edited by Joram G. Haber
and
Mark S. Halfon

Contents

Preface	vii
I. CARE AND MORALITY
1 Care as Labor and Relationship Sara Ruddick	3
2 Caring in the Balance Michael Slote	27
3 Feminism, Autonomy, and Emotion Marilyn Friedman	37
II. FEMINISM AND SOCIAL RELATIONS
4 Tropes of Social Relations and the Problem of Tropisms in Figurative Discourse Diana T. Meyers	49
5 Feminist Morality and Social Policy Nel Noddings	61
6 Cultural Justice and the Limits of Difference Carol C. Gould	73
7 Toward a Postpatriarchal Society Patricia S. Mann	87
III. NORMS, VALUES, AND THEORY
8 A Pluralistic Model of Moral Justification Mark S. Halfon	113
9 Living with Evils Claudia Card	125

- 10 Forgiveness and Feminism 141
Joram G. Haber

IV. FAMILY AND RACE

- 11 Paternity and Commitment 153
Larry May
- 12 On the Expressivity and Ethics of Selective Abortion for Disability: Conversations with My Son 173
Eva Feder Kittay, with Leo Kittay
- 13 "Racial Integration" Revisited 205
Lawrence Blum

V. HISTORICAL REEVALUATIONS

- 14 Damaris Cudworth Masham: A Learned Lady of the Seventeenth Century 233
Sue Weinberg
- 15 Does Kant's Ethics Ignore Relations between Persons? 251
John W. Lango
- 16 Justice and Modes of Production: Allen Wood's "The Marxian Critique of Justice" Revisited 267
Kai Nielsen

- Afterword Virginia Held 283
- Bibliography of the Writings of Virginia Held 285
- Index 291
- About the Contributors 293