

Contents

Acknowledgments ix

Introduction 1

Margaret Urban Walker

Part One: Looks

1 There Are No Old Venuses: Older Women's
Responses to Their Aging Bodies 7

Frida Kerner Furman

2 Miroir, Mémoire, Mirage: Appearance, Aging, and Women 23

Diana Tietjens Meyers

Part Two: Lives

3 Virtues and Age 45

Sara Ruddick

4 Unplanned Obsolescence: Some Reflections on Aging 61

Sandra Lee Bartky

5 Stories of My Old Age 75

Hilde Lindemann Nelson

6 Getting Out of Line: Alternatives to Life As a Career 97

Margaret Urban Walker

7 Death's Gender 113

James Lindemann Nelson

Part Three: Looking at Health Care

8 Old Women Out of Control: Some Thoughts on Aging, Ethics, and Psychosomatic Medicine 133

Susan Wendell

9	Menopause: Taking the Cures or Curing the Takes? Joan C. Callahan	151
10	Religious Women, Medical Settings, and Moral Risk Peggy DesAutels	175
11	Age, Sex, and Resource Allocation Daniel Callahan	189
Part Four: Living Arrangements
12	Aging Fairly: Feminist and Disability Perspectives on Intergenerational Justice Anita Silvers	203
13	Home Care, Women, and Aging: A Case Study of Injustice Martha Holstein	227
14	Caring for Ourselves: Peer Care in Autonomous Aging Robin N. Fiore	245
15	Age-Segregated Housing As a Moral Problem: An Exercise in Rethinking Ethics Joan C. Tronto	261
	Index	279
	About the Contributors	289