

Contents

Preface ix

Introduction: Engendering Welfare, Degendering Care:
Theoretical and Comparative Perspectives on the United States and Europe

Nancy J. Hirschmann and Ulrike Liebert 1

Part 1 Deconstructing the Welfare State: Theoretical Issues

One Dependencies 23
Martha Albertson Fineman

Two From Welfare to a Public Ethic of Care 38
Eva Feder Kittay

Three Who Cares? Public and Private Caring and the Rethinking of Citizenship 65
Joan C. Tronto

Four A Question of Freedom, A Question of Rights? Women and Welfare 84
Nancy J. Hirschmann

Part 2 Welfare Reform in the United States

Five Welfare Reform in the 104th Congress: Institutional
Position and the Role of Women 111
Kathleen J. Casey and Susan J. Carroll

Six	Ending the Entitlements of Poor Single Mothers: Changing Social Policies, Women's Employment, and Caregiving in the Contemporary United States	133
	Ann Shola Orloff
Seven	The Rhetoric and Reality of Welfare Reform	160
	Heidi Hartmann and Hsiao-Ye Yi
Eight	At the Kitchen Table: Poor Women Making Public Policy	177
	Lisa Dodson
Part 3 Realigning Social Welfare Regimes
<hr/>
Nine	Challenging the Maternalist Presumption: The Gender Politics of Welfare Reform in Germany and the United States	193
	Joyce Marie Mushaben
Ten	Gendering Welfare State Variation: Income Transfers, Employment Supports, and Family Poverty	215
	Marcia K. Meyers and Janet C. Gornick
Eleven	Women in the Restructuring of Care-Work: Crossnational Variations and Trends in Ten OECD-Countries	244
	Susan Christopherson
Twelve	Degendering Care and Engendering Freedom: Social Welfare in the European Union	261
	Ulrike Liebert
	References 289
	About the Contributors 313
	Index 319	