

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Introduction: Two Kinds of Ecology	3
I. Ecology and Freedom
1. Ecological Realism	11
2. Political Economy and Ecology: Marx and Illich	14
3. Ecology and the Inversion of Tools	17
4. Ecology and the Crisis of Capitalism	20
5. The Poverty of Affluence	28
6. Equality and Difference	32
7. Social Self-Regulation and Regulation from Outside	34
8. Seven Theses by Way of Conclusion	40
A Possible Utopia	42
II. Ecology and Society
1. Reinventing the Future	55
2. Affluence Dooms Itself	64
3. The Social Ideology of the Motorcar	69
4. Socialism or Ecofascism	77
5. Twelve Billion People?	91
III. The Logic of Tools
1. Nuclear Energy: A Preeminently Political Choice	99
2. From Nuclear Electricity to Electric Fascism	102
3. Boundless Imperialism: The Multinationals	114
4. Labor and the "Quality of Life"	130
IV. Medicine, Health and Society
Introduction	149
1. Medicine and Illness	152
2. Health and Society	166
3. Science and Class: The Case of Medicine	180
Epilogue: The Continuing American Revolution	197