

Contents

Notes on contributors	v
Preface and acknowledgements	vii
1. Civil Society and Authoritarianism: Debates and Issues – an Introduction	1
Björn Beckman and Anders Sjögren
2. State, Civil Society and Democratisation: Theoretical Debates Past and Present	21
Anders Sjögren
3. Civil Society and Alliance Politics	49
Björn Beckman
4. Civil Society, Globalisation and Labour: Workers in Post-Soeharto Indonesia	69
Vedi R. Hadiz
5. Challenging Authoritarianism: Civil Society and Labour Conflict in Vietnam	91
Eva Hansson
6. The Changing Balance in State-Society Relations: A Review of Selected Labour Regimes in Africa	117
Lloyd M. Sachikonye
7. NGOs and State in Zimbabwe: Implications for Civil-Society Theory	135
Sara Rich Dorman
8. Women's Organisations and the Autonomy of Civil Society from the State under Military Rule in Nigeria, 1985-1997	156
Charmaine Pereira
9. Civil Society, Religion and Democracy in Contemporary Africa	183
Jibrin Ibrahim
10. The Transnational Dimension of Civil Society: Migration and Independence Movements in Southeast Asia	196
Anders Uhlin
11. Movement Politics and Development: Preliminary Theoretical Notes on Some Concrete Cases in Kerala and Indonesia	224
Olle Törnquist
12. New Directions in State Reform: Implications for Civil Society in Africa	250
Yusuf Bangura	