

Contents

Abbreviations	xi
Preface	xiii
Introduction	1
PART I. A THEORY OF INTERSUBJECTIVE MORAL INSIGHT	19
Introduction to Part I	21
Chapter One. The Object, Method, and Aim of Discourse Ethics	23
I. A Formal Pragmatics of Moral Interaction	23
II. The Discourse Ethics Enterprise	30
Chapter Two. Elements of Moral Discourse	37
I. Beyond Overlapping Consensus	38
II. The Structure of Rational Conviction	41
III. The Content of Practical Argumentation: Norms of Action	45

Chapter Three. Deriving a Dialogical Principle of Universalization	56
I. Conflict as Context	57
II. Premises	57
III. Derivation	65
IV. The Dialogical Intersubjectivity of (U)	69
V. Implications	76
Postscript to Part I: Insight as Intersubjective	84
PART II. SOLIDARITY: DISCOURSE ETHICS AND THE GOOD	89
Introduction to Part II	91
Chapter Four. Moral Discourse and Conceptions of the Good Life	93
I. The Distinction Between Ethical and Moral Perspectives	93
II. The Priority of Right in Discourse Ethics	96
III. The Relevance of Goods in Moral Discourse	101
IV. Solidarity and Moral Values	106
Chapter Five. Discourse Ethics and the Good	112
I. Questions of Priority	113
II. Charles Taylor: The Priority of Good	115
Excursus. Rawls on Justice and the Good	123
III. A Constitutive Good for Discourse Ethics?	134
Chapter Six. The Solidaristic Basis of Moral Insight	150
I. Moral Formalism: Clues from a Reading of Humboldt	151
II. The “No Alternatives” Thesis: The Latent Power of the Other	159
III. Insight and Solidarity	167
IV. Concluding Summary	172

PART III. DISCOURSE AND PARTICULARITY	179
Introduction to Part III	181
Chapter Seven. Care and Discourses of Application	184
I. The Ethics-of-Care Critique of Impartialism	185
II. The Discourse-Ethical Response: Discourses of Application	187
III. Rapprochement with the Ethics of Care?	196
Chapter Eight. Situating Discourse Ethics: Toward the Analysis of Real Discourses	211
I. An Obvious Question	211
II. The Legal-Political Institutionalization of Discourse	214
III. Decentering Rational Consensus: Further Questions	227
IV. Insight and Solidarity: A Wrap-Up	244
Bibliography	251
Index	265