

CONTENTS

PREFACE TO THE SECOND EDITION	vii
PREFACE TO THE FIRST EDITION	ix
INTRODUCTION	xv

PART I RENÉ DESCARTES

I. 'Talis erat . . . Naturae filius'	3
II. The intellectual climate of the age	30

PART II METHODOLOGY AND METAPHYSICS

III. The technique of research in science and philosophy	57
IV. Reconstruction in metaphysics: oneself, God, and Nature	90
V. The natural world and our knowledge of Nature	131
VI. Body and mind	153
VII. Knowing, knowledge, and the self	168
VIII. The self and its freedom: 'Omnis peccans est ignorans'	187

PART III THE CARTESIAN SCHOOL

IX. The impact and immediate influence of Descartes	217
---	-----

PART IV A CRITICAL REVIEW OF CARTESIANISM

X. Some merits and defects of Cartesianism (I)	251
XI. Some merits and defects of Cartesianism (II)	279

APPENDIX. On Descartes's contributions to general and special problems in the sciences	303
BIBLIOGRAPHY	313
INDEX	319