

CONTENTS

Preliminaries . . . . .	vii
PART I: Formation of the Theory of Nature . . . . .	1
Introduction . . . . .	3
1. A Fable for Skeptics . . . . .	5
2. Demythologizing the Eternal Truths . . . . .	10
3. Three Primary Meanings of Nature . . . . .	16
4. Laws of Nature . . . . .	26
5. Fabular Man's Presence in Nature . . . . .	31
PART II: Incorporation of the Theory of Nature . . . . .	35
Introduction . . . . .	37
6. Methodic Doubt and the Metaphysical Rooting of Nature . . . . .	39
7. A Crucial Transition . . . . .	52
8. Tempering the Claim to Know Nature . . . . .	60
9. Methodic Convergence upon Operable Nature . . . . .	67
10. Natural Belief and Humane Finality in Nature . . . . .	80
References . . . . .	95
Index . . . . .	98