

Contents

Foreword by John B. Cobb, Jr.	9
Acknowledgments	11
Prologue	15
1 To Outer Space and Back: Approaching the Millennium	24
2 Leaving in the Sixties: From Social Action to Cultural Crisis	38
Social Action	39
Cultural Crisis	48
Leaving	50
3 Glimpses from Outer Space	53
Speechlessness	54
Dilemma	55
Adolescence	57
Mysticism	59
Consciousness	61
Enlightenment	63
Improvisation	65
Culture	67
Vocation	69
Encounter	70
4 Returning in the Seventies: From Cultural Crisis to a New Ethic	72
Gravity	74
Reentry	82
Return	88
5 The Traditionalist Eighties: Reconsidering the Modern Project	94
The Longing for Return	94
Modern History as Forgetting—and Remembering (a Reflection on the Sixties)	99
Claiming Tradition	117
6 The Emergence of a World Ethic: A New Kind of Effort	124
The Need of Integration	124
Earth Thinking, Relational Thinking (a Reflection on the Seventies)	125

Theological Implications	135
On Solitude, Spiritual Hygiene, and Relatedness	139
Emergence, Love, and Action	144

Notes	149
Bibliography	158
Index	163