TABLE OF CONTENTS

Ralph Schumacher
Introduction 7

Margaret Atherton
Green is like Bread – The Nature of Descartes’ Account of Color Perception 27

Andreas Kemmerling
“As it were Pictures” – On the Two-Faced Nature of Cartesian Ideas 43

Dominik Perler
Inside and Outside the Mind – Cartesian Representations Reconsidered 69

Ralph Schumacher
The Content of Experience – Descartes and Malebranche on the Perception of Secondary Qualities 88

Russell Wahl
Malebranche – The Senses, Representation, and the Material World 108

Bertram Kienzle
Locke’s Qualities 122

Martha Brandt Bolton
Locke on Sensory Representation 146

Peter Baumann
Molyneux’s Questions 168
Table of Contents

Katia Saporiti
Berkeley’s Perceptual Realism 188

Gerald Vision
Perceptual Experience and Belief 214

Rolf-Peter Horstmann
Comment on Vision 232

Gerald Vision
Reply to Professor Horstmann 236

Michael Ayers
Sense Experience, Concepts and Content –
Objections to Davidson and McDowell 239

Jay F. Rosenberg
Sellarsian Seeing – In Search of Perceptual Authority 263

Thomas Grunthann
Perceptual Representations as Basic Reasons 287

Gary Hatfield
Sense-Data and the Mind-Body Problem 305

Martine Nida-Rümelin
Phenomenal Essentialism –
A Problem for Identity Theorists 332

Authors 345

Index 351