

Contents

Introduction to SUNY Series in Constructive Postmodern Thought	ix
Cover Painting	xiii
Acknowledgments	xv

Introduction

The Social Self as an Intercultural Theme for Comparative Philosophy and Religion .....	1
---	---

Part I. The Social Self in Modern Japanese Philosophy

1. Watsuji Tetsurō's Ningen Model of Japanese Selfhood .....	49
2. The Social Self and I-Thou Dialectic of Nishida Kitarō .....	79
3. The Dependency Self Model of Doi Takeo's Amae Psychology .....	123

Part II: The Social Self in G. H. Mead and American Philosophy

4. The Social Self in Classical American Philosophy .....	141
5. The Social Self and I-Me Dialectic of G. H. Mead .....	187

Part III: The Social Self in Japanese and American Philosophy

6. Tanaka Ōdō and the Initial Reception of American Pragmatism in Japan .....	267
--	-----

7. The Social Self in Mead and Confucianism .....	271
8. The Social Self in Mead, Zen, and Japanese Society .....	281
9. The Social Self in Mead and Watsuji .....	297
10. The Social Self in Mead and Nishida .....	325
11. Selfhood in the Social Psychology of Mead and Doi .....	351
12. The Social Self as a Body-Mind Interaction .....	361
13. The Social Self as a Human-Nature Interaction .....	379
14. The Social Turn in Philosophical Anthropology .....	403
Notes .....	455
Glossary of Sino-Japanese Terms .....	459
References .....	461
Note on Centers .....	475
Index .....	477