

Contents

Foreword to the Paperback Edition	ix
Preface	xiii
Acknowledgments	xxi
PART ONE: 1859–1875
1. “The Firmament Sheweth His Handiwork”: Darwin’s Theory in Its Theological Context	3
2. “Science, Falsely So Called”: The Assault on the Scientific Merits of the Theory of Organic Evolution	32
3. “In the Twinkling of an Eye”: From Naturalist Ploy to Scientific Theory	64
PART TWO: 1875–1900
4. “Put on the Whole Armor of God”: The Theological Critique	91
5. “Canst Thou by Searching Find Out God?”: The Protestant Evolutionists’ Defense of Theism	117
6. “Where Is the Place of Understanding?”: The Protestant Evolutionists and Religious Knowledge	146
7. “What Is Man, That Thou Art Mindful of Him?”: The Protestant Evolutionists and Christian Doctrine	174
8. “Get Thee Hence, Satan”: Continued Opposition to the Theory of Organic Evolution	209
Conclusion	233
Notes	245
Index	329