
Contents

| | |
|--|------------|
| Introduction | ix |
| 1. Yearning to Make Sense of Things | 1 |
| A Trinitarian Natural Theology | 9 |
| 2. The Crisis of Confidence in Modern Natural Theology | 11 |
| 3. Renewing the Vision for Natural Theology | 21 |
| 4. Challenges to a Renewed Natural Theology | 35 |
| 5. Natural Theology and the Explanation of Reality | 51 |
| 6. The Dynamics of a Trinitarian Natural Theology | 61 |
| 7. Surprising Facts: Counterfactuals and Natural Theology | 83 |
| 8. Augustine of Hippo on Creation: A Theological Lens | 95 |
| Fine-Tuning: Observations and Interpretations | 109 |
| 9. In the Beginning: The Constants of the Universe | 111 |
| 10. Can These Bones Live? The Origins of Life | 127 |
| 11. The Matrix of Life: The Curious Chemistry of Water | 143 |
| 12. Chemical Catalysts and the Constraints of Evolution | 155 |
| 13. The Origins of Complexity: The Mechanism of Evolution | 167 |
| 14. The Outcomes of Evolution: The Directionality of Evolution | 183 |
| 15. An Emergent Creation and Natural Theology | 203 |
| Conclusion | 217 |
| Bibliography | 223 |
| Index | 259 |