

Contents

Key to References	ix
Preface to the Second Edition	xi
Preface	xv
1. An Introduction to Whitehead's Philosophy	1
1. Whitehead's Philosophy and the Problem of Dualism	1
2. The Analysis of an Actual Occasion	4
3. Societies of Actual Occasions	13
2. The Human Soul	18
1. The Soul as Social	18
2. The Distinctiveness of the Human Soul	25
3. Life after Death	30
4. Personal Identity	35
5. The Unconscious	41
6. The Locus of the Soul	43
3. Humans as Responsible Beings	50
1. Freedom as Self-Determination	50
2. Intrinsic Value as Beauty	54
3. Goodness as Moral Value	62
4. An Ethical Theory	65
5. Duty, Love, and the Initial Aim	74
6. Peace	78

4. Whitehead's Doctrine of God	81
1. Science and the Modern World	81
2. Religion in the Making	87
3. Process and Reality: The Primordial Nature of God	92
4. Process and Reality: The Consequent Nature of God	99
5. The Later Writings	106
6. The Character of the Argument	106
5. Further Reflections on Whitehead's Doctrine of God	112
1. Changing Perspectives	112
2. Creativity and God	113
3. God and Time	120
4. How God Saves	125
5. A Particular Providence	128
6. Three Technical Issues	132
6. The Religious Availability of Whitehead's God	139
1. Whitehead's Religious Sensibility	139
2. Religious Belief and Religious Experience	146
3. The Religious and the Ethical	160
7. The Theological Task	165
1. What Is Theology?	165
2. What Is Natural Theology?	170
3. Relativism	178
4. Other Tasks of Theology	183
Index	191