

Helen Kohlen

Conflicts of Care

Hospital Ethics Committees in the USA and Germany

Campus Verlag
Frankfurt/New York

Contents

Acknowledgement	9
Introduction	11
 State of the Art, Theoretical Framework and Methodological Considerations
1 State of the Art in Social Science Research	23
2 Theoretical Framework and Research Design	27
3 Method and Sources of Information	31
Germany and the United States:
Literature Review, Interviews and Pre-Study	31
Field Research in Germany: Participant Observation and Interviews	32
Data Collection and Interpretation: Qualitative Content Analysis	33
 Historical Analysis
Bioethics and Hospital Ethics Committees
1 US-American Bioethics and the Move into the Practical Arena	37
“Bioethics is not just Bioethics”: Its Make and (Un)Concerns	37
The Move of Bioethics into the Practical Arena: “Strangers at the Bedside” ..	47

2	Traces and Beginnings of Consultation by Committees	53
	Traces of Institutionalized Consultation Committees	53
	From Professional Ethical Standards to Governmental Intervention	63
3	The Development of Contemporary Hospital Ethics Committees	69
	The Story of Karen Quinlan	69
	Multidisciplinary Advisory Committees as Physicians' Prognosis Committees	71
	Types of Hospital Ethics Committees: From Ad hoc Committee to Optimum Care Committee at Boston Massachusetts General Hospital	73
	The President's Commission and its Support of Hospital Ethics Committees	76
	From the "Baby Does' Cases" to Infant Bioethical Review Committees	79
	Statutory Authority for Hospital Ethics Committees, Bureaucratization and Evaluation	85
	The Talk and its Performance in Hospital Ethics Committees	89
	The German Development: A Re-Make of the US-American Model	92
4	Summary	95

Relational Analysis

Care and Hospital Ethics Committees

1	The Care Ethics Debate and Nursing since 1980	101
	Caring as a Women orientated Ethics and a Feminine Model	102
	Caring as a Foundational Concept for a Theory of Nursing Ethics	105
	Care Ethics from a Nursing Perspective in Germany	111
2	Feminist and Nursing Studies in Care Ethics since 1990	115
	Caring as a Social Practice from a Political Science Perspective	116
	Nursing Practices of Care: Competence and Clinical Realizations	126
	Moral Understandings and Responsibilities	129

3 Concerns of Care, Conflicts and Nurses' Participation in Hospital Ethics Committees	135
Concerns of Care in Hospital Nursing Practice	135
Nurses' Role and Participation in Hospital Ethics Committees	147
4 Summary	161

Practical Arena Analysis

Practices in Hospital Ethics Committees in Germany

1 Introduction of the Field Research	165
Method	165
The Case Stories	170
2 Analysis of the Field Data	177
Education and Policy Making: Training, Management and Regulations	178
Case Discussions and Nursing Issues: The Definition of an Ethical Problem and the Marginalization of Care	187
Case Discussions and Medical Issues: Age, Isolation and Caring Responsibilities	195
Evolving Issues of Concern: Exclusions and Questions of End-of-Life Care	206
3 Summary	219

Résumé	225
--------------	-----

List of Abbreviations	231
-----------------------------	-----

References	233
------------------	-----