

WOMEN AND CITIZENSHIP

EDITED BY

Marilyn Friedman

OXFORD
UNIVERSITY PRESS

2005

Contents

Contributors ix

Introduction 3
Marilyn Friedman

Part I. Citizenship, Government, and Law

1. The Logic of Masculinist Protection: Reflections on the Current Security State
Iris Marion Young 15
2. French Universalism in the Nineties
Joan Wallach Scott 35
3. Battered Women, Intimidation, and the Law
Sandra Bartky 52

Part II. Practices of Citizenship in Culture and Civil Society

4. Women's Community Activism and the Rejection of "Politics": Some Dilemmas of Popular Democratic Movements
Martha Ackelsberg 67
5. Arenas of Citizenship: Civil Society, the State, and the Global Order
Alison M. Jaggar 91
6. Multiple Subjectivities: Chicanas and Cultural Citizenship
Aída Hurtado 111
7. Care as the Work of Citizens: A Modest Proposal
Joan Tronto 130

Part III. Grounds of Citizenship in Culture and Civil Society

8. The Kin Contract and Citizenship in the Middle East
Suad Joseph 149

viii Contents

9. Citizenship and Faith

Amina Wadud 170

10. Women's Education: A Global Challenge

Martha C. Nussbaum 188

Index 215