

Paradise Earned
The Bacchic-Orphic Gold Lamellae of Crete

Yannis Tzifopoulos

CENTER FOR HELLENIC STUDIES
Trustees for Harvard University
Washington, D.C.
Distributed by Harvard University Press
Cambridge, Massachusetts, and London, England
2010

Table of Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
Preface	1
1. Edition
The Gold Epistomia of Crete	9
Nos. 1–9: Nine Incised	9
Nos. 10–12: Three Unincised	30
Related Texts	32
Nos. 13–15: The Incised Coins and Epistomion from Pieria	32
No. 16: The Hymn from the Diktaian Sanctuary in Palaikastro, Crete	35
No. 17: The Epigram of Magna Mater from Phaistos, Crete	41
Nos. 18–23: Epistomia in Byzantine Graves	43
Nos. 24–25: Modern Greek Examples	51
2. Commentary on Epistomia nos. 1–12		53
Topography	53
Lettering—Engraving	59
Dialect—Orthography	60
Meter	62
Chronology	64
Material	66
Shape—Burial Context	67
Usage	76
3. The Cretan Epistomia in Context		93
The Corpus of the Epistomia : Nature and Classification	93
The Cretan Texts in the Context of a Ritual and a Hieros Logos	101
In Search of a Context: Rhapsodizing and ‘Prophesying’ the Afterlife ..	115

Contents

4. The Cretan Contexts	151
A Literary Cretan Context	151
A Cretan Context	189
The Cretan Context of the Cretan Epistomia	221
Afterword:
Old Habits Die Hard or New Customs Follow Old Paths?	237
Appendix 1	255
Appendix 2	281
Bibliography	285
Figure Credits	369
Index of Passages	371