

Hume

on morality

■ James Baillie

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
List of abbreviations	ix
1 Introduction	1
Life and times	1
Methods and aims	10
Moral sense	15
2 Background on the understanding	19
Impressions and ideas	20
Causation	24
Denial of physical and mental substance	31
3 The passions	37
The social self	37
The direct passions	39
Pride and humility	42
Object and cause	45
The double association of impressions and ideas	51
Refinements to the rule	53
Sympathy	56
Love and hatred	60
Sympathy and comparison	65

4	Motivation and will	73
	Freedom and the will	73
	Reason cannot directly motivate action	86
	Passions as 'original existents'	90
	A Humean account of motivation	97
	Calm passions	99
5	Against moral rationalism	105
	Introduction	105
	Two rationalists: Clarke and Wollaston	107
	Morals and motives	121
	Demonstrative reasoning cannot ground morality	125
	Factual error cannot be the source of immorality	131
	'Is' and 'ought'	136
	The moral sentiments	139
6	The virtues	143
	The four sources of personal merit	143
	Against egoism	147
	Justice as an artificial virtue	153
	The origin of justice and property	159
	Natural preconditions of justice	172
	The acquisition and transfer of property	177
	The artificiality of promises	180
	Self-interest in its proper place	185
7	The moral stance	189
	Sympathy and its correction	189
	A standard of taste	199
	A standard of morals	210
	Bibliography	217
	Index	223