

FREEDOM AND MORAL SENTIMENT

Hume's Way of Naturalizing Responsibility

PAUL RUSSELL

OXFORD
UNIVERSITY PRESS

Contents

Abbreviations, xi

Introduction, 3

Part I. The Necessity of Moral Sentiment

1. Logic, "Liberty", and the Metaphysics of Responsibility, 11
2. Minding the Matter of Necessity: A Paradox Regarding Causation, 24
3. Causation, Compulsion, and Compatibilism, 43
4. The Naturalism of Hume's "Reconciling Project", 58
5. Hume's Naturalism and Strawson's Reconciling Project, 71

Part II. The Elements of Responsibility

6. The Content and Objects of Moral Sentiment, 87
7. Action, Character, and Excuses, 95
8. Will, Intention, Feeling: The Indications of Character, 110
9. The Involuntary Nature of Moral Character, 124
10. Retributive Feeling and the Utility of Punishment, 137
11. Pride, Fortune, and the Godless Man, 154
12. Responsibility Naturalized: A Qualified Defence of Hume, 170

Bibliography, 187

Index, 193