

Petr Urban • Lizzie Ward
Editors

Care Ethics,
Democratic Citizenship and the State

palgrave
macmillan

CONTENTS

1	Introducing the Contexts of a Moral and Political Theory of Care	1
	Petr Urban and Lizzie Ward
Part I	Exploring Core Concepts	29
2	Democratic Practice and ‘Caring to Deliberate’: A Gadamerian Account of Conversation and Listening	31
	Sophie Bourgault
3	Democratic Inclusion Through Caring Together with Others	53
	Jorma Heier
4	Why the Publicly Funded Solution Is Better Equipped to Provide Democratic Care ‘For All’	77
	Helena Olofsdotter Stensöta
5	Re-thinking ‘Paternalism’ for a Democratic Theory of Care	93
	Marion Smiley

6	The Nurturing Language of Care Ethics and of Other Related Feminist Approaches: Opposing Contemporary Neoliberal Politics Brunella Casalini	117
7	Caring Democracy as a Solution Against Neoliberalism and Populism Fabienne Brugère	137
8	Time for Caring Democracy: Resisting the Temporal Regimes of Neoliberalism Julie Anne White	161
Part II Applications in Different Contexts		179
9	Caring Democracy: How Should Concepts Travel? Joan C. Tronto	181
10	Cosmopolitanism, Care Ethics and Health Care Worker Migration Kanchana Mahadevan	199
11	Understanding the Social Care Crisis in England Through Older People's Lived Experiences Lizzie Ward, Mo Ray, and Denise Tanner	219
12	Women's Experiences of Poverty in Japan: Protection and the State Yayo Okano and Satomi Maruyama	241
13	Deficit of Democratic Care in the Educational System in Slovakia Adriana Jesenková	259
14	Organizing the Caring Society: Toward a Care Ethical Perspective on Institutions Petr Urban	277
Index		307