

ATONEMENT AND
THE DEATH OF CHRIST

An Exegetical, Historical, and Philosophical Exploration

William Lane Craig

BAYLOR UNIVERSITY PRESS

CONTENTS

Preface	vii
1 Introduction	I

I

Biblical Data Concerning the Atonement

2 Sacrifice	13
3 Isaiah's Servant of the LORD	37
4 Divine Justice	51
5 Representation and Redemption	79

II

Dogmatic History of the Doctrine of the Atonement

6 Patristic Theories	91
7 Medieval Theories	113
8 Reformation and Post-Reformation Theories	125

III
Philosophical Reflections on the Doctrine of the Atonement

9	Penal Substitution: Its Coherence	147
10	Penal Substitution: Its Justification	173
11	Satisfaction of Divine Justice	195
12	Redemption: Divine Pardon and Its Effects	215
13	Redemption: Justification and Appropriation of a Divine Pardon	237
14	The Moral Influence of Christ's Passion	259
15	Conclusion	265
	Bibliography	273
	Index of Authors and Subjects	293
	Index of Ancient Sources	307
	Index of Scripture	311
	Index of Court Opinions	317