

E. J. LOWE

MOREKINDS OF BEING

A Further Study of Individuation,
Identity, and the
Logic of Sortal Terms

WILEY Blackwell

Contents

Preface*	vii
Acknowledgements	xi
1 Introduction	1
The Varieties of 'Is'	3
Individuals, Kinds, and Realism	4
Semantics, Metaphysics, and Necessity	6
New Developments*	8
2 Sortal Terms and Criteria of Identity	12
3 Individuals, Sorts, and Instantiation	29
4 Number, Unity, and Individuality*	42
5 The Absoluteness of Identity: A Defence	57
Appendix: Some Formal Principles and Arguments	72
6 Identity and Constitution	77
7 Parts and Wholes	92
8 Persons and Their Bodies	104
Matter and Organisms	104
Organisms and Persons	113
Is There a Criterion of Personal Identity?	125
9 Sortal Terms and Natural Laws	141

10	Plural Quantification and Sortal Reference*	164
11	Laws, Dispositions, and Sortal Logic	179
	Appendix: An Axiomatic System of Sortal Logic	194
12	What Sorts of Things Are There?*	198
	The Syntax and Semantics of Complex Sortal Terms	198
	On the Identity of Sorts	212
	Bibliography*	217
	Index	223