

BUREAUCRACY AND DEMOCRACY

ACCOUNTABILITY AND PERFORMANCE

FOURTH EDITION

Steven J. Balla

George Washington University

William T. Gormley, Jr.

Georgetown University

Contents

Tables and Figures xi

Preface xiii

Chapter 1: Bureaucracies as Policymaking Organizations 1

The Contours of Public Bureaucracy 4

Accountability and Performance in Public Bureaucracies 4

Accountability and Its Many Faces 9

The Evolution of Accountability 11

Federal Agencies and Electoral Politics 12

The Limits of Accountability 13

The Push for Performance 15

The Government Performance and Results Act 16

The Program Assessment Rating Tool 18

Agency Reputations in the Real World 21

Accountability and Performance: Theories and Applications 24

Chapter 2: Bureaucratic Reasoning 31

Bounded Rationality 33

Simplified Problem Solving 36

Problem Disaggregation 36

Standard Operating Procedures 38

Sunk Costs 41

Diffusion of Policy Innovations 41

Simulations and Tests 43

Evidence-Based Research 44

Implications for Policy Analysis 49

Motivation 50

Empathy and Commitment 51

Representative Bureaucracy 53

Money as a Motivator	54
Attitudes toward Risk	55
Organizational Advancement	58
Promoting Organizational Cohesion	58
Consequences of Bounded Rationality	60
A Narrow Search	61
Problem Disaggregation	62
Approximations	62
Standard Operating Procedures	64
Conclusion	66

Chapter 3: The Bureaucracy's Bosses 74

Delegation, Adverse Selection, and Moral Hazard	76
---	----

Why Bureaucracy?	78
------------------	----

Why Delegation Varies	81
------------------------------	----

Implementing Child Care Legislation	84
--	----

Managing Delegation	86
---------------------	----

Presidential Power	86
---------------------------	----

Unilateral Actions	87
--------------------	----

The Budget	89
------------	----

Appointments	90
--------------	----

Firings	95
---------	----

Civil Service Reform	96
----------------------	----

Regulatory Review	98
-------------------	----

Midnight Regulations	101
----------------------	-----

Congressional Control of the Bureaucracy	103
---	-----

Politics of Bureaucratic Structure	104
------------------------------------	-----

Administrative Procedures	105
---------------------------	-----

Appropriations	107
----------------	-----

Oversight	108
-----------	-----

Congressional Review Act	111
--------------------------	-----

Judicial Review	112
------------------------	-----

Judges versus Politicians	112
---------------------------	-----

Circuit Courts and Administrative Law	113
---------------------------------------	-----

Supreme Court	115
---------------	-----

Principal-Agent Theory and the Bureaucracy's Clients	115
--	-----

Principals and Principles	116
---------------------------	-----

Chapter 4: The Bureaucracy's Clients 129

The Benefits, Costs, and Politics of Public Policy 131

The Rise and Fall of Iron Triangles 134

The Venues of Client Participation 138

The Notice and Comment Process 138

Advisory Committees and Other Venues of Collaboration 142

Political Intervention 145

Political Protest 147

Client Participation and the Internet 148

Client Influence on Bureaucratic Policymaking 154

Business Organizations 155

Public Interest Groups 156

State and Local Governments 158

Clients and the Institutions of Government 161

Client Participation: Three Lessons and Beyond 161

Who Participates Varies 162

Venues Vary 162

Influence Varies 162

Chapter 5: Bureaucratic Networks 173

Networks versus Hierarchies 175

Network Theory 176

The Tools Approach 179

Types of Bureaucratic Networks 181

Intergovernmental Relationships 181

Environmental Protection 181

Health Policy 187

Race to the Top in Education 190

Welfare Reform 191

Public-Private Partnerships 191

Contracting Out 192

Partnerships without Contracts 195

Environmental Protection 196

Education 197

Regional Economic Development 198

Interagency Networks	198
The Cabinet	199
Office of Management and Budget	200
Interagency Coordination	201
Czars	203
Network Effectiveness	209
The Effectiveness of Policy Tools	210
Grants-in-Aid	210
Regulation	212
Information	214
Networks and Public Bureaucracy	217
Chapter 6: The Politics of Disaster Management	230
The Gulf of Mexico: Two Crises with Precedent	231
Hurricane Katrina	232
FEMA's Evolution	233
Katrina Strikes	235
Applying the Theories	236
The Coast Guard and Other Success Stories	239
The Deepwater Horizon Oil Spill	242
Bounded Rationality on the Deepwater Horizon	243
Networks and Oil Exploration	244
The Minerals Management Service: A Problematic Principal	245
Of Booms, Berms, and Client Politics	247
BP and Beyond	249
September 11, 2001: A Crisis without Precedent	250
The First Response	251
Bureaucracy after 9/11	253
The Iraq War and the Intelligence Community	256
Beyond the Department of Homeland Security	258
Avian Influenza: A Crisis in the Making?	261
National Strategy for Pandemic Influenza	263
Using the Theories to Forecast	265
Evaluating Bureaucracy in Light of the Theories	268

Chapter 7: Why Are Some Bureaucracies Better Than Others? 280

Rating the Performance of Agencies 281

Explaining Variations in Performance 282

Tasks 283

Relationships 287

Political Support 288

Leadership 291

Alternative Ways of Gauging Agency Performance 295

Bureaucracy in the Twenty-first Century 298

Appendix: Web Resources 306

Index 309