

SOME LATER
MEDIIEVAL
THEORIES
OF THE EUCHARIST

Thomas Aquinas, Giles of Rome, Duns Scotus, and
William Ockham

MARILYN MCCORD ADAMS

OXFORD
UNIVERSITY PRESS

Contents

Introduction	1
1. Aristotelian Preliminaries	4

PART ONE: WHY SACRAMENTS?

2. Sacraments: What, Why, and Wherefore	31
3. Sacramental Causality: “Effecting What They Figure!”	51

PART TWO: THE METAPHYSICS AND PHYSICS OF REAL PRESENCE

How Does It Get Where?

4. Explaining the Presence, Identifying the Change: Aquinas and Giles of Rome	85
5. Duns Scotus on Placement Problems	111
6. Duns Scotus on Two Types of Transubstantiation	138
7. Remodelling with Ockham	152

Independent Accidents?

8. Accidents without Substance: Aquinas and Giles of Rome	179
9. Independent Accidents: Scotus and Ockham	197

Morals of the Story

10. Theology Provoking Philosophy	229
-----------------------------------	-----

PART THREE: WHAT SORT OF UNION?

11. Eucharistic Eating and Drinking	259
12. Sacraments, Why Ceasing?	277
List of Numbered Propositions	297
Bibliography	303
Index	307