

WHAT IS ANCIENT PHILOSOPHY?

PIERRE HADOT

Translated by Michael Chase

THE BELKNAP PRESS OF
HARVARD UNIVERSITY PRESS

Cambridge, Massachusetts
London, England

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments ix

Translator's Note xi

Introduction 1

P A R T O N E

The Platonic Definition of "Philosopher" and Its Antecedents

1 Philosophy before Philosophy 9

2 The Inception of the Idea of "Doing Philosophy" 15

3 The Figure of Socrates 22

4 The Definition of "Philosopher" in Plato's Symposium 39

P A R T T W O

Philosophy as a Way of Life

5 Plato and the Academy 55

6 Aristotle and His School 77

-
- 7 The Hellenistic Schools 91
8 Philosophical Schools in the Imperial Period 146
9 Philosophy and Philosophical Discourse 172

P A R T T H R E E

Interruption and Continuity: The Middle Ages and Modern Times

- 10 Christianity as a Revealed Philosophy 237
11 Eclipses and Recurrences of the Ancient Concept of
Philosophy 253
12 Questions and Perspectives 271

- Notes 283
Quotations of Ancient Texts 324
Selected Bibliography 329
Chronology 331
Index 343
-