

Jesuit Schools and Universities in Europe 1548–1773

By

Paul F. Grendler

BRILL

LEIDEN | BOSTON

Contents

List of Maps VII

Jesuit Schools and Universities in Europe 1548–1773 1

Paul F. Grendler

Abstract 1

Keywords 1

Part 1: Schools 1

- 1 The First School: Goa, Gandía, or Messina? 1
- 2 Basic Bibliography and Organization 6
- 3 The Schools Are the Most Important Ministry 10
- 4 College and School 12
- 5 Jesuit Islands 14
- 6 The Curriculum 15
- 7 Jesuit Civic Humanism 19
- 8 The Upper School: Philosophy and Theology 23
- 9 The Roman College 27
- 10 Classes and Enrollments 29
- 11 Pedagogical Practices and Classroom Culture 33
- 12 The Social Composition of the Students 38
- 13 Jesuit Boarding Schools 41
- 14 Schools in Eastern Europe 43
- 15 Noble Boarding Schools 45
- 16 Roman National Colleges 48
- 17 Jesuit Schools in France 53
- 18 Jesuit Schools: Conclusions 66

Part 2: Universities 68

- 1 The First Jesuits and Universities 68
- 2 The Civic–Jesuit Collegiate University Model 71
- 3 The University of Coimbra 75
- 4 The Jesuits and University Degrees 79
- 5 The Jesuits in Central European Universities 82
- 6 Italian Civic–Jesuit Universities 85
- 7 Jesuit Universities 91
- 8 Universities with Individual Jesuit Professors 95
- 9 The Jesuits and Spanish Universities 97
- 10 Universities Warring against Jesuit Schools 100
- 11 Jesuits and Universities: Conclusions 106

Acknowledgment 108

Bibliography

Primary Sources 108

Secondary Sources 109