

Christina Weiss
Editor

Constructive Semantics

Meaning in Between Phenomenology and Constructivism

Contents

| | |
|---|-----|
| 1 Introduction | 1 |
| Christina Weiss | |
| Part I Integrating Transcendental Phenomenology into the Dialogical Framework | |
| 2 Dialogues, Reasons and Endorsement | 15 |
| Shahid Rahman | |
| 3 A Phenomenological Analysis of the Distinction Between Structural Rules and Particle Rules in Dialogical Logic | 85 |
| Mohammad Shafiei | |
| 4 A Dialogical Account of the Intersubjectivity of Intuitionism | 95 |
| Clément Lion | |
| Part II Critical Positions Towards Integrating Transcendental Phenomenology and Constructivism | |
| 5 Constitution and Construction | 123 |
| Mirja Hartimo | |
| 6 Husserl's Purely Logical Chastity Belt | 135 |
| Claire Ortiz Hill | |
| Part III Phenomenology and Constructivism as a Dialectical Relation | |
| 7 The Truth of Proof: A Hegelian Perspective on Constructivism | 149 |
| Vojtěch Kolman | |
| 8 Constructive Semantics: On the Necessity of an Appropriate Concept of Schematization | 173 |
| Christina Weiss | |