

CONTENTS

	PAGE
INTRODUCTION . . . . .	I

PART I: THE RISE OF THE NATIONAL STATE

CHAPTER I

POLITICAL BACKGROUND . . . . .	3
The Twin Forces of Nationalism and State Power — State Power — Nationalism — The State as the Ordering Factor — Nationalism and State Power in Modern German History

CHAPTER II

ECONOMIC BACKGROUND . . . . .	10
Mercantilism and Laissez-faire — Relations between State Power, Economic Interests and Law in the principal European States

CHAPTER III

SOCIAL PILLARS OF THE NATIONAL STATE . . . . .	19
The Middle Classes and the National State — Tudor Nationalism — Developments in Britain, France and U.S.A. — The Younger National States

CHAPTER IV

SOVEREIGNTY OF THE NATIONAL STATE . . . . .	32
Legal, Political, Economic, Social Aspects

PART II: THE DECLINE OF THE NATIONAL STATE

CHAPTER I

THE CONFLICT BETWEEN NATIONAL SELF-DETERMINATION AND THE STRONG STATE . . . . .	36
The Peace Settlements of 1919 — Position of small and big States

CHAPTER II

THE CONFLICT BETWEEN NATIONALISM AND IMPERIALISM . . . . .	43
The Expansion of National States towards Imperial States — The Anti-National Character of Fascism — The Emergence of National Movements among Non-European Peoples

	PAGE
CHAPTER III
MARXISM, THE NATIONAL STATE AND THE WORKING CLASS . . . . .	60
Marxist Hostility to the National State — The Strengthening of Labour Nationalism — The New Internationalism of the Working Classes
CHAPTER IV
THE DEFECTION OF THE MIDDLE CLASSES FROM THE NATIONAL STATE . . . . .	71
The Military Class — The Bureaucracy — The Intellectuals — The Black- coated Proletariat — The Peasant Class
CHAPTER V
ECONOMIC CONDITIONS AND THE NATIONAL STATE . . . . .	86
Preliminary Observations — The Interaction of Political Authority and Economic Forces — International Economic Interests and the National State — Capitalist Imperialism and the National State — Economic Interests under the New Imperialism — Vested Interests and War — Economic Independence and Interdependence — Conclusions as to Relations of Economic Classes and National State.
CHAPTER VI
CURRENT INTERNATIONAL IDEOLOGIES . . . . .	114
The Fascist International — The Idea of Collective Security — Federation and National Sovereignty
CHAPTER VII
CURRENT INTERNATIONAL IDEOLOGIES ( contd. ) . . . . .	125
The Multi-National State — The Rights of Man — The Commonwealth Ideal — Grossraumordnung
CHAPTER VIII
PATRIOTISM . . . . .	152
The Revival of Patriotism in the Subjugated Countries — The Destruction of Patriotism by Fascist Imperialism — The Retarding Influence of Patriotism
PART III: SUMMARY AND CONCLUSIONS
CHAPTER I
SUMMARY . . . . .	163

Contents

ix

CHAPTER II

PAGE

THE NEED FOR A READJUSTMENT OF VALUES . . . . . 167
Choice between Alternative Ideals — Patriotism in a Changing World

CHAPTER III

INTERNATIONAL AUTHORITY AND DIVERSITY OF NATIONAL GOVERNMENT . . . . . 172

CHAPTER IV

A BLEND OF REALISM AND IDEALISM . . . . . 183
The Potentialities of the Great Alliance — Regional Associations

POSTSCRIPT . . . . . 190

INDEX . . . . . 193