

Contents

Part I Within the Husserlian Framework

1 Husserl's Layered Concept of the Human Person: Conscious and Unconscious.....	3
Dermot Moran
2 Reflections on the Phenomenological Unconscious in Generative Phenomenology .....	25
Alexander Schnell

Part II From the Specific Perspective of Merleau-Ponty

3 Merleau-Ponty's Conception of the Unconscious in the Late Manuscripts .....	41
Emmanuel de Saint Aubert
4 Repression and Operative Unconsciousness in Phenomenology of Perception.....	61
Timothy Mooney
5 Merleau-Ponty's Nonverbal Unconscious.....	75
James Phillips

Part III At the Limit of Phenomenology

6 Is There a Phenomenology of Unconsciousness? Being, Nature, Otherness in Heidegger, Merleau-Ponty, Levinas .....	95
Dorothée Legrand
7 Phenomenology of the Inapparent.....	113
François Raffoul

8	From the Night, the Spectre .....	133
	Joseph Cohen
9	Phenomenology and the Problem of the Inhuman: Psychologism, Correlationism, and the Ethics of Absolute Materiality .....	141
	Drew M. Dalton
Part IV With Phenomenology and Beyond
10	Hypnagogia, Anxiety, Depersonalization: A Phenomenological Perspective .....	163
	Dylan Trigg
11	Merleau-Ponty's Non-Exclusively-Verbal Unconscious: Affect Figurability and Gender .....	181
	Thamy Ayouch
12	The Unconscious and the Non-linguistic Mode of Thinking .....	209
	Dieter Lohmar
13	A Broken Self-Possession: Responsive Agency in Habits .....	223
	Line Ryberg Ingerslev
Part V Beyond Phenomenology
14	Surprise as a Phenomenal Marker of Heart-Unconscious .....	239
	Natalie Depraz
15	This Immense Fascination with the Unconscious: Psychoanalysis and Surrealism .....	261
	Alphonso Lingis
Index.....		279