
Contents

List of illustrations	ix
Acknowledgements	xiii

Introduction

A red carpet on the picket line: tactical performance	1
---	---

PART I

The question of carnival 75

1 Tactical carnival: dialogism and social movements	77
2 Clownfrontation and clowndestine maneuvers: the Clown Army and the irresistible image	112

PART II

The struggle for public space: outflanking authority, upstaging the establishment 143

3 Reclaim the Streets: tactical interaction and urban mallification/mollification in New York City	145
4 Breaking conventions, breaking into conventions (from the WTO to WTF?)	173

PART III

Eschew cliché!: on the value of surprise 209

5 Critical simulacra and tricknology: Oil Enforcement Agents, Yes Men, and Survivaballs 211

6 All the news we hope to print: the creation and mass distribution of progressive prank papers 231

PART IV

Serious but not solemn 251

7 Crisis in Califorlornia: creative protest at the University of California 253

Conclusion

Earning moments for the movement 280

Index 298