

CONTENTS

Jiří Přibáň's Socratic Warnings (Petr Pithart) 9

Note to the Reader 15

1 CZECHS IN EUROPE

The Czech Question in Post-national Society 25

The Poverty of Czech Euroscepticism 36

The Czech Presidency of the EU 45

European Borders 55

Endless Europe 64

EU – War Child, Victim of Peace? 73

The Union Today Doesn't Know What it is, Hence its Crisis 82

Greece – State of Emergency 91

Brrr-exit 104

2 DEMOCRATIC CONSTITUTIONALISM

The Cold Lies of the State 115

Election Carnival 123

Waiting for a Leader? 132

Depoliticisation – A Czech Dream of Peace and Tranquillity 143

The Disintegration of the Public Sphere 150

Where Did the People Go? 158

3 PARLIAMENTARY DEMOCRACY

Parliamentarianism 169

Elections 176

The Age of Political Uncertainty 185

The Defence of Party Politics 194

4 LIBERTY AND HER PEOPLE

Militant Democracy 205

Protest 215

Hunger Strike 222
Social Citizenship 228
People, or Population? 236

5 POLITICAL THOUGHT IN A GLOBAL SOCIETY

The Crisis and its Criticism 247
Intellectuals 260
For Others Rights, for Himself Duties 270
Sunken Islands of Positive Deviance? 276
Democracy is a Process of Permanent Self-correction 286
Czeching Wales 303