

Contents

Introduction: The Non-Philosophical Inversion: Laruelle's Knowledge Without Domination John Mullarkey and Anthony Paul Smith	I
1. Thinking From the One: Science and the Ancient Philosophical Figure of the One Anthony Paul Smith	19
2. Laruelle Facing Deleuze: Immanence, Resistance and Desire Marjorie Gracieuse	42
3. Laruelle and Ordinary Life Rocco Gangle	60
4. The Justice of Non-Philosophy Joshua Ramey	80
5. Laruelle and the Reality of Abstraction Ray Brassier	100
6. The Science-Thought of Laruelle and its Effects on Epistemology Anne-Françoise Schmid	122
7. $1 + 1 = 1$: The Non-Consistency of Non- Philosophical Practice (Photo: Quantum: Fractal) John Mullarkey	143
8. Transcendental Arguments, Axiomatic Truth, and the Difficulty of Overcoming Idealism Michael J. Olson	169

vi	Laruelle and Non-Philosophy
9.	Laruelle, Anti-Capitalist Alexander R. Galloway	191
10.	Theories of the Immanent Rebellion: Non-Marxism and Non-Christianity Katerina Kolozova	209
11.	Is Thinking Democratic? Or, How to Introduce Theory into Democracy François Laruelle	227
12.	Non-Philosophy, Weapon of Last Defence: An Interview with François Laruelle	238
	Notes on Contributors	252
	Select Bibliography	256
	Index	260