

Contents

Preface	ix
Nancy Tuana
Acknowledgments	xiii
Abbreviations	xv
Introduction I—General Background History of the Feminist Reception of Heidegger and a Guide to Heidegger's Thought	1
Patricia Huntington
Introduction II—Specific Contributions Feminists Read Heidegger	43
Nancy J. Holland
Part I: The Gender of Dasein
1 Geschlecht: Sexual Difference, Ontological Difference	53
Jacques Derrida
2 The Problematic Normative Assumptions of Heidegger's Ontology	73
Tina Chanter
3 Conflictual Culture and Authenticity: Deepening Heidegger's Account of the Social	109
Dorothy Leland
4 "The Universe Is Made of Stories, Not of Atoms": Heidegger and the Feminine They-Self	128
Nancy J. Holland

Part II: Poetics and the Body

- 5 The Absence of Monica: Heidegger, Derrida, and Augustine's Confessions 149
John D. Caputo
- 6 Sappho: The She-Greek Heidegger Forgot 165
Carol Bigwood
- 7 Feminine Figures in Heidegger's Theory of Poetic Language 196
Jennifer Anna Gosetti

Part III: Ethics, Home, and Play

- 8 Heidegger and Ecofeminism 221
Trish Glazebrook
- 9 House and Home: Feminist Variations on a Theme 252
Iris Marion Young
- 10 Thrownness, Playing-in-the-World, and the Question of Authenticity 289
Mechthild Nagel

Part IV: Thinking, Spirit, Moving Forward

- 11 From The Forgetting of Air to To Be Two 309
Luce Irigaray
 Translated by Heidi Bostic and Stephen Pluháček
- 12 "Through Flame or Ashes": Traces of Difference in Geist's Return 316
Ellen T. Armour
- 13 Revolutionary Thinking 334
Gail Stenstad
- 14 Stealing the Fire of Creativity: Heidegger's Challenge to Intellectuals 351
Patricia Huntington
- Contributors 377
- Selected Bibliography 381
- Index 389